

Internal comms meeting bingo!

Do any of these sound familiar?
Put your next town hall to the test...

Minority dominating the Q&A	Asked if 'On the bus'	Polite laughter	 Q&A app for anonymous feedback	Steve Jobs quote (with black and white photo)	 Genuine engagement
 Ability to 'like' or approve of colleagues thoughts	Fear of judgement from peers if asking a question	 Remote attendees can contribute	Death by PowerPoint... Slides read word for word	 Live polls for honest feedback	Clipart!
Question time cut short	Boss asks for approval by a show of hands	Q&A kick offs with awkward silence	 Back channel available for discussion	People doing other work in the meeting	People making excuses not to attend
Management ask for ideas and immediately shoot them down	 Feedback collected AND responded to	Heather Small song	Opening line-'Is this microphone working'	Remote attendees cannot contribute	Room too hot or too cold
Meeting starts late	No meeting agenda or agenda is not adhered to	 Understanding and approval measured	Management throw curveball in closing statements... mic drop	 Input requested ahead of meeting	AV/Tech issue
